Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Sharonview Federal Credit Union ("Sharonview FCU")

What we do

How does Sharonview FCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to your personal and account information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products and services to you.

How does Sharonview FCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- ▶ Open an account or apply for a loan
- ▶ Use your credit or debit card
- ▶ Make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- ▶ Provide account information or show your government-issued ID

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- ▶ sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your credit worthiness
- ▶ affiliates from using your information to market to you
- ▶ sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
