

Sharonview Federal Credit Union Opens Charlotte Branch in University
Nationally ranked credit union announces new location

CHARLOTTE N.C. – July 19, 2017– Sharonview Federal Credit Union, one of the nation's top 200 credit unions, is excited to announce that its new University location is now open in Charlotte. A full-service branch, it offers a variety of value-added financial services from banking to loan procurement and planning.

"There is a lot of growth in Charlotte right now and Sharonview Federal Credit Union is thrilled to be a part of that growth," states President/CEO, Bill Partin. "Opening a branch in the University neighborhood expands our offerings in the greater Charlotte area, allowing us to reach potential new members, while offering more convenience to existing members."

Sharonview Federal Credit Union – University is led by branch manager Brian Ferraro. "As a member of the Sharonview team, I am excited to watch us grow as we expand in the Charlotte community," adds Ferraro. "This new branch will create countless opportunities for both employees and members."

Different from most financial institutions, members of Sharonview Federal Credit Union have a voice and say in what is going on because members are owners. Membership at Sharonview Federal Credit Union is made easy and is available to anyone through the following ways:

- select employer groups
- direct relative of an existing member
- an individual lives, works, worships, attends school or volunteers in one of our community charter areas
- membership in one of many local associations

To learn more about membership, call 704-969-6700 or 800-462-4421.

The University branch is located at 8944 J.M. Keynes Drive #320, Charlotte, NC 28262. The hours of operation are Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information, visit www.sharonview.org.
